The Aero Aircraft Plant in Prague-Vysocany now employs about 2,000 workers and is being constantly enlarged. At the present time the plant produces only Baby model light planes at a rate of two planes per day. Many of these are in storage at Kbely Airfield. About a month ago plant draftsmen started copying the blueprints of a late model Soviet jet plane. Once before the plant was entrusted with the production of Soviet aircraft, but when blueprints and plans were already for production, the work was halted and the blueprints destroyed.
